Anna Karinna Del Valle Russowsky, 34 years old is mother of David (4) and Benjamin (2). Anna was born in Mexico City to a Mexican father and a Brazilian mother. She lived in Mexico City, New York and São Paulo due to her father's career opportunities in multinational companies. Anna spent most of her school years at Green Gates School, the top British school in Mexico City. After graduating from high school, Anna pursued her higher education in New York, where she lived for 7 years. During that time, she acquired a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Pratt Institute and a certification from the French Culinary Institute, where she worked alongside world renowned chefs. Anna loves to be actively involved in everything she participates in, and that drive is even stronger when it comes to her children's education. Ever since her eldest son joined St. Paul's School, Anna has learnt a lot about how the school/parent communication works and has several ideas on how to improve that. Becoming a PTA representative will be a personal and family commitment to ensure that parents have a voice and to contribute further to the St. Paul's School community.
